APPEAL

FOR A

FUND TO ERECT A FIRE PROOF BUILDING

FOR THE

LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA.

THE Directors have felt for a long time serious apprehensions with regard to the safety of the Company's property at the corner of Fifth and Library Stréets, and of the valuable collection of books, &c., it contains.

The present edifice was formerly in the midst of an open lot, separated from the neighboring buildings by a sufficient space to protect it from the danger of fire. But now it is so surrounded by stores and workshops, in some of which hazardous trades are carried on, that it has become exceedingly insecure. It is to be observed that an alarm would be almost as injurious as an actual fire, if it were necessary to throw water on the present building. The one element would be little less destructive than the other.

The value of this Library is scarcely appreciated. It contains 65,000 volumes. It is among the very first in point of age and size in the United States, and many works are to be found in it which could never be replaced.

The disposable funds of the Company are very small; in fact, not sufficient to defray the necessary expenses of the Library, and to purchase all such modern works as would be desirable. They for many years past have been, and must continue to be, annually applied to those purposes, but still they are insufficient to enlarge the collection as rapidly as several of the libraries of other cities. From this source, therefore, no assistance can be derived.

Under these circumstances the Directors have determined to appeal to the liberality of their fellow-citizens to aid them in procuring means for the erection of a FIRE PROOF BUILDING on the present or any other convenient site, in which these literary treasures may repose in security; and thereby afford evidence that PHILADELPHIA is not unmindful of their value, nor indifferent to their safety.

It is proposed that all subscriptions and donations which may be received shall be deposited and invested to the credit of the BUILDING FUND until they amount to a sum fully adequate to erect a fire-proof building without incurring any debt. This fund will be kept separate and distinct, and held in trust for this object only.

Subscriptions (which will not be binding until the sum of twenty thousand dollars is subscribed) will be received at the Library.

REPORT.

THE number of volumes added to the Library during the past year is 2365, besides about 1400 pamphlets. The total number of volumes is about 81,000, including 10,174 belonging to the Loganian Library. In this enumeration each volume of pamphlets is counted as one book only.

In the autumn of last year the attention of the Board of Directors was called to five volumes of Manuscripts which had been presented to the Library in 1799. An examination of these volumes made it evident that they were a part of the National Archives of Great Britain. They consisted of official correspondence relating to Ireland, many of the letters bearing the sign manual of King James I. It was further ascertained through Mr. Hepworth Dixon, who was familiar with the State papers preserved in the Rolls House in London, that the series of Letters of which these volumes were a part, is preserved in London in the custody of the Master of the Rolls. The Directors, considering that there was an eminent propriety in the MSS. being restored to the British Government as a portion of their public archives, an offer to do so was made to Lord Romilly, the Master of the Rolls. The offer was transmitted to the Lords of the Treasury, and was by them gratefully accepted. In the course of the correspondence which ensued Lord Romilly desires "to express to the Library Company of Philadelphia [his] deep sense of the obligation conferred by them on the British Nation, and [his] conviction that this, and acts of a similar character will rivet more closely the ties of friendship and respect which already bind our countries together."

The following letter on this subject was received from Sir Frederick W. A. Bruce, G.C.B., the British Minister at Washington :—

British Legation, Washington, D. C., Feb. 27, 1867.—Sir: The Master of the Rolls has brought under the notice of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury the offer made through you by the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia, to restore to the British Government a valuable and important part of the national records of Great Britain, which have been found in their collection.

I am instructed to state that the offer is gratefully accepted by their Lordships, and it is my pleasing duty at the same time to add that the honorable and disinterested spirit which has prompted the gift, is highly appreciated by Her Majesty's Government.

The Lords Commissioners request the acceptance by the Directors, for deposit in the Philadelphia Library, of a complete set of the Chronicles and Memorials of Great Britain and Ireland during the middle ages, and of the Calendars of State Papers as well as of the several Fac-similes made by the process of photo-zincography and published by their authority under the direction of the Master of the Rolls.

Should the Directors give to these documents a place in their library, I shall communicate with pleasure their acceptance, in order that the proper steps may be taken to have them forwarded from England.

I have directed Mr. Kortright, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, at Philadelphia, to receive the volumes of Records which the Directors have so handsomely offered to restore to the British Nation, and I will forward them to their destination without delay.

I am, sir, your obed't serv't,

FREDERICK W. A. BRUCE.

The munificent gift mentioned in the above letter, consisting of 156 volumes, all handsomely bound in levant morocco, was received on the 6th of May last. The books, which will be found catalogued on pp. 15 to 18 of this supplement, are of the highest interest to the jurist and the antiquarian, and of great intrinsic value. The Directors did not fail to return thanks, through the Master of Rolls, to Her Britannic Majesty's Government for the very liberal return which it thought proper to make for a simple act of restitution performed by the Directors.

The Library Company is indebted to Mrs. Isaac Lea for a donation of books from the library of her father, the late Matthew Carey, Esq., amounting (besides duplicates) to about 500 volumes.

A bequest of about 400 volumes of books, besides many unarranged scraps, and of numerous water-color and India-ink pictures, &c. (all relating to Philadelphia), has been received from the executors of the late Charles A. Poulson, Esq. The latter have notified the Directors that Mr. Poulson bequeathed, in addition to all his books and drawings relating to this city, the sum of $500, which he directed to be invested, and the interest to be used, in the language of the testator, "to preserve my said books, and to procure new ones on the subject aforesaid."

During the past year a number of standard theological works have been presented to the library by Robert Case Clark, Esq. Also, a collection (perhaps unique) of anti-slavery newspapers, books and pamphlets, partly from the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society, and partly from Edward M. Davis, Esq. Only a few of the more important of these are catalogued in the annexed list. Minor donations are acknowledged under the titles of the books presented.

A digested catalogue of the additions to the Library (about 20,000 volumes) since the publication in 1856 of the third volume, is much wanted; but at the present high price of paper and printing, the cost would be about $7000, a sum beyond the means of the Company. In the meantime the MS. alphabetical catalogue at the desk, with its copious cross-references, is at the service of the student.

The Directors have appointed a Committee to confer with similar Committees of other Associations on the subject of joint action in the erection of fire-proof buildings. Should the city adopt the proposed plan of giving Penn Square for the use of the principal Scientific and Literary Institutions of Philadelphia, it is thought that, with such aid as will readily be forthcoming, the valuable collection of books belonging to this Company can be placed in a fire-proof building without violating the Company's established policy of keeping out of debt.

During the past year a supplement to the Loganian Catalogue was published, containing the titles of all books added since the General Catalogue of 1837. To this is prefixed the original Deed of Trust, which had never before been in print, and a wood-cut representing the building at the northwest corner of Sixth and Walnut Streets, in which the Loganian Library was kept from 1750 to 1792.

The Library will be closed this year on the 11th July, and re-opened August 1st.

By order of the Directors.

LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA.

(Rooms Open from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.)

REPORT.

At the Annual Meeting of the Members of the Library Company of Philadelphia, held May 5, 1873, the Directors were "authorized to apply to the Court of Common Pleas for an alteration of the Charter of the Company, so as to enable the Directors, with the assent of a general or special meeting of the members, to increase the annual payment on each share to such a sum as may be expedient from time to time." In accordance with this authorization, an application was made to the Court, and the necessary alteration in the Charter of the Company having been granted, the Directors hereby give notice that a Meeting of the Members will be held in the Library Building on Wednesday, the 25th day of February, at 12 o'clock M., to consider the question of raising the annual payment. The reason for this call will appear from the following

STATEMENT.

The Library Building has hitherto been free from all taxation; but the Act of Assembly exempting it was repealed by the general repealing Act, approved April 8, 1873; and, moreover, Article IX. of the new Constitution restricts the Legislature from granting any similar exemptions in the future. Hence, this Company will be subject, for the first time since 1826, to a tax on its Library Building, which for the year 1874 will amount to $1320. The question arises, from what source can be derived the necessary funds for defraying this unlooked-for expenditure? Can the money be taken from the current income of the Institution, without crippling its operations? To answer these questions, it is only necessary to glance at the annual receipts and expenditures of the Company, as shown in the Treasurer's reports, of which the following, for the financial year 1872–73, is an average specimen.

RECEIPTS.

| Balance from last year . . . | | $1466 16 |

| Rent, &c., Loganian Library . | | 665 23 |
| Yearly payments . . . . | | 4945 62 |
| | | $9810 90 |

EXPENDITURES.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Books and periodicals . . . | $3204 39 | |
| Binding . . . . . | 771 90 | $3976 29 |
| Salaries . . . . . | | 2666 00 |
| Expenses, repairs, and improvements . . . . . | | 1482 88 |
| Insurance . . . . . | | 175 00 |
| Balance to next year . . . | | 1514 73 |
| | | $9810 90 |

From this it appears that the total income of the Library Company is only $8374 44, of which—after paying salaries, expenses, repairs, insurance, $3976 29 is applied to the purchase of books, and to binding. It is obvious that no reduction can be made in the remaining items of expenditure, and, indeed, it is believed that no other public library, of the size of ours, is administered at anything like so small a cost. Hence, the additional taxation now imposed upon the Company must be met either by reducing the amount—already insufficient—appropriated to the purchase of books, or by raising the yearly payment of each member. The former course would so obviously impair the usefulness and prosperity of the Library, that the Directors, after mature deliberation, have unanimously resolved to recommend to the members to raise the yearly payment. This should be done to such a sum as not only to provide funds to meet the new tax, but also to effect additional insurance on the property of the Company; and more especially to enable the Directors to purchase more duplicates of popular works, and to procure a greater supply of books in the various departments of science, general literature, and history. It must be borne in mind that, not only is the number of new publications increasing from year to year, but there has been a considerable advance in the cost of books and binding, during the past ten years, so that the Board find their present resources inadequate to maintain the elevated character which the Library has heretofore sustained, when compared with the other literary institutions of the country.

In view of all these facts, the Directors are of the opinion that no sum less than $8 per annum from each member will be adequate to meet the pressing necessities of the Institution, and they therefore respectfully recommend to the members, at their special meeting, called as above, to increase the yearly payment from $5 to $8, the same to take effect on the first Monday of May, 1874. When this shall be done, it will be possible for the Directors—and they propose—to increase the facilities afforded to the Stockholders, by permitting them to take out double the number of volumes allowed by the present Rules.

By order of the Board.

LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA.

I. All persons are allowed to consult the books in the room without charge during Library hours.

II. The Librarian shall attend at the Library every day (Sunday excepted) from nine o'clock A. M. to five o'clock P. M. He shall enter in the catalogue, kept at the Library, such books as may be purchased or added to the Library; label and number the same, as well as all others from which the label or number may be torn off or defaced. He shall also replace the books on the shelves, as they are brought in, as soon as he conveniently can, first having examined whether they are free from damage.

III. He shall lend to any member,

Two Folios for five
Two Quartos for three
Two Octavos, or
Four Ducdecimos, for two } Weeks,

and no greater number, unless on hire, or so connected as to be otherwise useless. Persons, however, who reside at the distance of seven miles or upward, are permitted to have books one week longer than the above-mentioned times. At the expiration of the time specified (unless application has been made by another member for the same books, and the Librarian requested to take a memorandum thereof) the borrower may, on producing the books to the Librarian, renew the same for the like time.

IV. Every person, not being a member, who shall hire one or more books shall first give a note for double the value thereof, and shall also deposit as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out.

V. Every member, or other person, who shall take out a book or books on hire, shall pay, for the use of the Library, the following rates, weekly: For Duodecimos and Octavos fifteen cents, Quartos twenty cents, and Folios twenty-five cents, and no smaller sums, although the book may be returned within the week.

VI. Every member, or other person, who shall neglect to return the book or books, within the time specified in the third rule, shall for such neglect, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the Library (besides the hire, when the book is not taken out by virtue of a share) fifteen cents per week: and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited, the fine and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled; and if not so returned within three months from the same period, the note or deposit money shall be forfeited to the Company.

VII. Books returned are to be delivered into the hands of the Librarian, to be examined whether damaged or not.

VIII. No person from whom any hire or forfeiture is due or who hath damaged any book, shall be permitted to have another book till satisfaction be made.

IX. If a member, and one who is not a member, should apply for the same book at the same time, the member shall have the preference.

X. A member may take out on hire, without a deposit, as many books in value for which his share in the Library shall, by the Librarian, be deemed a sufficient security, on the same terms in other respects, as persons who are not members.

XI. The Librarian shall furnish the Directors, at each monthly meeting, with an account of the fines and forfeitures which have accrued during the preceding month.

XII. The Librarian is to conform to the instructions of the Directors with regard to such books as, from their scarcity and value, are to be let out only on certain conditions, or not at all.

XIII. No person, whether a member or not, is to lend the book or books he borrows to any person out of his dwelling-house.

XIV. No book shall be lent on the share of a deceased member, unless authorized by the executors or administrators of such deceased member.

XV. Persons not members may take books out of the Library on the same conditions as members, by paying twelve dollars annually, in advance, commencing at any period.

RULES

TO BE OBSERVED BY THE

LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA.

I. All persons are allowed to consult the books in the room without charge during Library hours.

II. The Librarian shall attend at the Library every day (Sunday excepted) from nine o'clock A. M. to five o'clock P. M. He shall enter in the catalogue, kept at the Library, such books as may be purchased or added to the Library; label and number the same, as well as all others from which the label or number may be torn off or defaced. He shall also replace the books on the shelves, as they are brought in, as soon as he conveniently can, first having examined whether they are free from damage.

III. He shall lend to any member,

Two Folios for five
Two Quartos for three
Two Octavos, or Four Duodecimos, for two } Weeks,

and no greater number, unless on hire, or so connected as to be otherwise useless. Persons, however, who reside at the distance of seven miles or upward, are permitted to have books one week longer than the above-mentioned times. At the expiration of the time specified (unless application has been made by another member for the same books, and the Librarian requested to take a memorandum thereof) the borrower may, on producing the books to the Librarian, renew the same for the like time.

IV. Every person, not being a member, who shall hire one or more books shall first give a note for double the value thereof, and shall also deposit as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out.

V. Every member, or other person, who shall take out a book or books on hire, shall pay, for the use of the Library, the following rates, weekly: For Duodecimos and Octavos fifteen cents, Quartos twenty cents, and Folios twenty-five cents, and no smaller sums, although the book may be returned within the week.

VI. Every member, or other person, who shall neglect to return the book or books, within the time specified in the third rule, shall, for such neglect, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the Library (besides the hire, when the book is not taken out by virtue of a share), fifteen cents per week; and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited, the fine and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled; and if not so returned within three months from the same period, the note or deposit money shall be forfeited to the Company.

VII. Books returned are to be delivered into the hands of the Librarian, to be examined whether damaged or not.

VIII. No person from whom any hire or forfeiture is due or who hath damaged any book, shall be permitted to have another book till satisfaction be made.

IX. If a member, and one who is not a member, should apply for the same book at the same time, the member shall have the preference.

X. A member may take out on hire, without a deposit, as many books in value for which his share in the Library shall, by the Librarian, be deemed a sufficient security, on the same terms, in other respects, as persons who are not members.

XI. The Librarian shall furnish the Directors, at each monthly meeting, with an account of the fines and forfeitures which have accrued during the preceding month.

XII. The Librarian is to conform to the instructions of the Directors with regard to such books as, from their scarcity and value, are to be let out only on certain conditions, or not at all.

XIII. No person, whether a member or not, is to lend the book or books he borrows to any person out of his dwelling-house.

XIV. No book shall be lent on the share of a deceased member, unless authorized by the executors or administrators of such deceased member.

XV. Persons not members may take books out of the Library on the same conditions as members, by paying twelve dollars annually, in advance, commencing at any period.

CARD CATALOGUE.

The want of a supplement to the printed catalogue of the Library having long been felt, and the funds of the Company not justifying the expense of a printed supplement, the Directors have caused a duplicate of the manuscript card catalogue to be made for the use of the members. This catalogue is arranged alphabetically in drawers outside of the Librarian's desk, thus affording, in connection with the printed catalogue, a complete index to the Company's collection.

If the book wanted has been published since 1856, or if it has been added to the Library since that time, its title should be looked for in the card catalogue. Otherwise it should be looked for in the index at the end of the printed catalogue.

RULES

TO BE OBSERVED BY THE

I. All persons are allowed to consult the books in the room without charge during Library hours.

II. The Librarian shall attend at the Library every day (Sunday excepted) from nine o'clock A. M. to five o'clock P. M. He shall enter in the catalogue, kept at the Library, such books as may be purchased or added to the Library; label and number the same, as well as all others from which the label or number may be torn off or defaced. He shall also replace the books on the shelves, as they are brought in, as soon as he conveniently can, first having examined whether they are free from damage.

III. He shall lend to any member,

| Two Folios for fiveTwo Quartos for threeTwo Octavos, orFour Duodecimos, for two | Weeks, |

and no greater number, unless on hire, or so connected as to be otherwise useless. Persons, however, who reside at the distance of seven miles or upward, are permitted to have books one week longer than the above-mentioned times. At the expiration of the time specified (unless application has been made by another member for the same books, and the Librarian requested to take a memorandum thereof) the borrower may, on producing the books to the Librarian, renew the same for the like time.

IV. Every person, not being a member, who shall hire one or more books shall first give a note for double the value thereof, and shall also deposit, as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out.

V. Every member, or other person, who shall take out a book or books on hire, shall pay, for the use of the Library, the following rates, weekly:—For Duodecimos and Octavos fifteen cents, Quartos twenty cents, and Folios twenty-five cents, and no smaller sums, although the book may be returned within the week.

VI. Every member, or other person, who shall neglect to return the book or books, within the time specified in the third rule, shall for such neglect, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the Library (besides the hire, when the book is not taken out by virtue of a share) fifteen cents per week; and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited, the fine and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled; and if not so returned within three months from the same period, the note or deposit money shall be forfeited to the Company.

VII. Books returned are to be delivered into the hands of the Librarian, to be examined whether damaged or not.

VIII. No person from whom any hire or forfeiture is due, or who hath damaged any book, shall be permitted to have another book till satisfaction be made.

IX. If a member, and one who is not a member, should apply for the same book at the same time, the member shall have the preference.

X. A member may take out on hire, without a deposit, as many books in value for which his share in the Library shall, by the Librarian, be deemed a sufficient security, on the same terms in other respects, as persons who are not members.

XI. The Librarian shall furnish the Directors, at each monthly meeting, with an account of the fines and forfeitures which have accrued during the preceding month.

XII. The Librarian is to conform to the instructions of the Directors with regard to such books as, from their scarcity and value, are to be let out only on certain conditions, or not at all.

XIII. No person, whether a member or not, is to lend the book or books he borrows to any person out of his dwelling-house.

XIV. No book shall be lent on the share of a deceased member, unless authorized by the executors or administrators of such deceased member.

XV. Persons not members may take books out of the Library on the same conditions as members, by paying twelve dollars annually, in advance, commencing at any period.

LOGANIAN RULES.

The rules of the Loganian Library are the same as those of the Library Company, except that (when a book is returned within the specified time), there is no charge in any case for the use of it.

RIDGWAY BRANCH.

At the annual meeting of the Library Company, May 6, 1878, the Hon. George Sharswood was called to the chair, and the Secretary, William Henry Rawle, Esq., read the following Report:—

The Directors of the Library Company respectfully report: That they are able to congratulate the members of the Company on the settlement of the difficulties which have been supposed to attend the acceptance of the munificent devise of the late Dr. James Rush; a trust which, if properly administered, cannot fail to be highly advantageous to the public as well as to the members of the Library Company.

As the Company considered it best, by their resolution of the 20th day of October, 1869, to accept the gift, the Directors have done what was possible to carry out the wishes of the members. An Act of Assembly and certain modifications by the proper Court, of its Charter, have been obtained which enable the Library Company to act as Trustees under Dr. Rush's will without affecting its own books and collections, except so far as may be thought just to comply in good faith with the expectations of the testator.

A noble structure, fire-proof in all its parts, and the finest edifice devoted to library purposes in the United States, has been erected by his Executor, Henry J. Williams, Esq., who has discharged the onerous duties devolved upon him with conscientious fidelity and efficiency. A suit which was instituted by him to ascertain the rights of the parties interested has just been determined. The decree of the Court of Common Pleas, made on the 4th of May, 1878, establishes that, while the Company has already accepted the bequest of Dr. Rush, it has done so on terms which substantially preserve the identity of the old institution, and enable it to use for the public good the property thus confided to it without imperilling that which has come to it from other sources. In accordance with that decree a deed of trust, which was carefully examined and unanimously approved and accepted by the Board, has been executed to the Company, a copy of which is herewith submitted. It will be seen that this deed conveys not only the building in Broad Street, but also the residuary estate of the late Dr. James Rush, which constitutes the endowment fund of the Ridgway Branch. This endowment consists of real estate valued at $300,000, yielding a gross income of nearly $30,000, and a net income, after paying taxes, repairs, and expenses, of over $18,000. It is charged with the payment of annuities amounting to $5680; but it is estimated that even now, after defraying the necessary expenses of the Ridgway Branch, a considerable yearly sum will be left for the purchase of books.

Another gratifying fact which the Board are able to communicate at the present time, and one which removes the principal objection heretofore felt to the acceptance of Dr. Rush's gift, is that the Supreme Court has recently decided that so much of the Company's property as is actually used for library purposes is exempt from taxation.

In the mean time the present library building has become so crowded that there is little or no further shelf room available for the storage of books. Immediate relief from this embarrassment will be afforded by the use of the Ridgway Branch, to which the Directors propose to remove not only such books as, if destroyed by fire, could never be replaced, but also—with the approval of their co-trustees—the entire Loganian Library, together with that portion of the Company's own collection which may be considered more particularly as a library of reference. The business of a circulating library, which was the original and primary object of the association, will still be carried on mainly in the present building, which will be connected by telephone with the one at Broad and Christian Streets, the American District Telegraph Company affording facilities for sending books from either to the houses of members and others.

The above-mentioned action of the Court, investing the Company with the management of the Trust created by Dr.

Rush's will, finds the Board of Directors charged with the administration of another trust, that is to say, the Building Fund started in 1856. This fund, as will be seen by the accompanying Report of the Treasurer, now amounts to $117,544.44, of which $71,809.18 is invested in real estate at the corner of Locust and Juniper Streets. The remainder would be sufficient, at the present reduced cost of building, to put up a fire-proof structure on that or some other convenient lot, sufficient to contain all the books which it is necessary for the Company to keep in a central location; and whenever a satisfactory offer is received for the Company's property at Fifth and Library Streets the question of removal will be seriously entertained.

In conclusion, the Directors once more congratulate the Company on the prosperous condition of its affairs, and confidently predict for the Institution an increase of usefulness in the future.

On motion of Hon. Eli K. Price, seconded by Edward Bedlock, Esq., the report was unanimously accepted, and the meeting adjourned.

The Ridgway Branch at Broad and Christian Streets is not yet open to the public, but Mr. George M. Abbot, the Assistant-in-charge, is authorized to admit, between the hours of 9 A.M. and 5 P.M., such of the members and their friends as desire to inspect the interior of the building. The 13th Street cars, and the green cars of the Union Line on 7th Street, go direct to the Library.
